Day 5

You are also hopefully keeping up with your diary writing! Remember this is a historical and interesting time – just like how we now read diary entries from Victorian times or WW2, people will want to look back on the experiences of children during this time! Here are some guidelines for writing a diary entry: Writing – Diary Entries

Reading

Work on your Destination Reader skills using the Destination Reader bookmark.

Remember that you should be trying to read for at least 20-30 minutes a day.

If you have a chance, please complete the following Reading task about a fascinating woman 'The Man Who Bought a Mountain' (Note: There are three different versions of the text/questions which vary in difficulty – pick which challenge you want! One star = yellow, two stars = orange, three stars = red)
