Stars of the Week

Tailor - Reception

Tailor's family would like to nominate her for the great resilience and maturity she has shown during the last 3 months. She has been attending the Key Worker Class and has seamlessly integrated into another friendship group of all ages. This has continued despite her burning desire to re-join a Chestnut Class Pod when they returned. However, Tailor fully understood the KW provision enabled her mum to continue working. Tailor also did a great job kite flying with her dad and sister during the "lockdown".

Tailor is our unsung hero and we are extremely proud of her!

So are we, Well done Tailor!

Pearl—Y3

We would like to say how proud we have been of Pearl's reading during lockdown. She has read 7 books and is now on her 8th! She says reading takes into another world, which has been really helpful during lockdown. It has stopped her feeling lonely, and has taken her mind off the sad things, like not having sleep overs and seeing family. Well done Pearl, nothing like a great book!

Keyworker Children

Keyworker staff would like to nominate the keyworker children because throughout lockdown the children have been exemplary and showed a great resilience. Each day they have brought a fantastic attitude to learning. Despite the unusual situation, they have always stayed positive and formed many friendships with children from all year groups.

Staff and pupils from the 'keyworker have made fond memories that will last a lifetime.
